

U.S. News & WORLD REPORT

U.S. News

MARCH 25, 2002

www.usnews.com

DIVERSIONS

SMART CHART

Carrying on in style

Here are new products designed to beat the one carry-on only rule or to help travelers navigate airport security checkpoints more efficiently.

ITEM

WebMobilizer

$365
For retail outlets, call (888) 658-0717; to order, visit www.swissarmy.com

WHAT'S COOL

A laptop carrying case that's James Bond cool, with retractable wheels and a telescoping pole to drag it behind you.

BONUS

Extra zippers give easy access to your computer. And it comes with $1,500 in laptop theft insurance.

eVest 2.0

$130
To order, call (866) 909-8378 or visit www.scottvest.com

Who needs a second carry-on? This jacket/vest (the sleeves zip off) has pockets for tech toys, plus built-in headset and wiring.

At a checkpoint, doff the garment and put it through the X-ray machine.

Travelon's ID and Boarding Pass Holder

$10; for retail outlets, call (800) 537-5544

Keeps ID card, boarding pass, and passport together in one place for checkpoints. Wear around the neck or tuck into luggage.

Now you can laugh at others who do the last-minute scramble for travel documents.

Expandable Carry-On With Suiter, $550

For outlets, call (800) 322-8864; go to www.tumi.com

More pouches than you could ever use, including removable garment bag with zip mesh pockets, front compartment for a laptop.

No need to empty contents and repack every time you need to find something.

By Christopher Elliott

TRY IT OUT